Foreword

This document has been designed for use with small discipleship groups using cell-phones, tablets, computers, TV connections, or projectors. This document is not designed as a printed book (though it can be printed) or large group presentation but rather as an electronic discussion guide for small or medium sized multi-language groups. The graphics on each page are designed to ease cross-cultural communication issues when using a translator or with group members using a second language. We hope that this document helps facilitate basic discipleship group discussions in both formal and informal groups in homes, churches, and coffee shops around the world. The copyright on this document allows you to freely distribute and even modify the content to meet your needs.

Study Questions

Edification

Opening Prayer

Review the Previous Lesson

Open in prayer.

Leader:

Can someone retell the previous story or lesson in their own words? Other group members may help.

Did anyone discuss this story or lesson with family, friends, or acquaintances? What was their response?

New Lesson

Leader: Today's lesson is found ...

We need to hear and obey God's Word!
(James 1:22-25)

Study Questions

Leader:

What did you hear? (Repeat back as much of the story or main points of the passage as you can remember in your own words. It doesn't have to be perfect and others can help you.)

What does it mean? (What is God teaching us about himself, Jesus, mankind, sin, salvation, etc.)

What should you do? (How do you apply this lesson to your daily life? What can you obey and how should your life change in response to this passage of scripture?)

Who else needs to hear this message?

Edification

Leader:

Do you have questions about other parts of the Bible you have been reading?

Prayer

Leader:

Is there anything we can pray for you about today? (pray after each request)

Close in prayer (commission people to go do what they have heard!)

Guard and value the time of others. If the group meeting is running long then close the meeting in prayer so that those who need to leave can go. But let others know that they may stay and discuss questions or prayer needs.
