Foreword

This document has been designed for use with Christian leadership development trainings using cell-phones, tablets, computers, TV connections, or projectors. This document is not designed as a printed book or large group presentation but rather a discussion guide for small or medium sized multi-language training groups. The graphics on each page are designed to ease cross-cultural communication issues when using a translator or training in a second language. We hope that this document helps facilitate discussions with leaders in both formal training situations and informal mentoring sessions in homes and coffee shops around the world. The copyright on this document allows you to freely distribute and even modify the content (with the exception of the King's Witness symbols that are used by permission) to meet your needs.

In the beginning
God created a perfect world
without sin, death
or suffering.

But mankind chose to sin by disobeying God.

This disobedience brought the curse of sin and death into the world. That is why bad things happen to us.

God loved us and gave us the Law, not to save us, but to show us that we cannot be good enough to save ourselves. We need help.

The Law says that when a person sins they need a perfect sacrifice to die in their place because the price of sin is death. One day John the Baptist saw Jesus and said, “Look, the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.”

God sent Jesus, his only son, because he loved us and the price
of sin had to be paid.

Jesus lived a perfect life and then
willingly died on the cross as a sacrifice
to pay for our sins.

On the third day
God raised Jesus
from the dead,
breaking the power
of the Curse of Sin and Death.

Then Jesus told his disciples that he was going away to prepare a place for them.

One day he will return
to gather his followers and to punish those who refuse the free gift of salvation through his sacrifice.

When Jesus returns he promises to make a new heaven and earth where there is no more sin, death, or suffering. Anyone who turns from their sins to follow Jesus will receive forgiveness of sins, eternal life, and a changed life here and now.
